Bird in Hand
Pinot Nero Rosé 2022

Adelaide Hills

The Adelaide Hills is perfectly suited to the production of premium quality Pinot Noir, this wine is crafted to reflect a savoury, Italian style rosé.

Pinot noir grapes were hand-picked from the Bird in Hand Estate in Woodside in the cool central Adelaide Hills. Sustainability underpins the management of our Estate Vineyard, with all inputs from organic origins, and vines nurtured to encourage their fullest expression.

Minimal skin contact before pressing has produced a wine with a pale translucent salmon-pink hue. Three parcels were vinified separately using different techniques including stabulation and carbonic maceration. Fermentation was carried out at low temperatures to maximise flavour and freshness and the wine was left on lees for 8 weeks to build texture before final blending.

A captivating hint of blush, this wine has a delicately perfumed nose with pink lady apple, grapefruit and strawberry and a hint of musk and rose petal. Subtle red fruit on the palate is enhanced by chalky acidity and clean, long finish.

This rosé wine is beautiful as an aperitif, served chilled with Salade Nicoise, a Salmon, pea and mint frittata or even with a summer fruit dessert such as strawberries and cream.

This stunning bottle was created in collaboration with acclaimed Australian fashion designer Dion Lee.
